The Junior-PP-PVDF housings with 1/2" in- and outlet are manufactured from either polypropylene or PVDF. The two-part construction consists of filter head and lower part. Four star-grip nuts close the housing. The filter head has a special connecting adapter on which the Junior element adapter with internal o-ring can be mounted. The bottom parts of the Junior elements are available incorporating Junior cartridge types 62.5 L and type 125 L in the corresponding two lengths. The small diameter and low construction height result in a small filling volume.
